

After reading “Creating a Strong and Happy Marriage” complete one of the following:

- Create a one page advertisement (similar to an advertisement you might find in a magazine) that promotes ways to create a strong and happy marriage. You can use ideas presented in the reading. Use the colored paper and markers to make your advertisement creative and eye catching.
- Write a one page(Dear Abby type) response to the following situation:
  - My spouse and I recently were married and I am worried about creating a strong marriage that will last through the test of time. What can we do to ensure that our marriage is happy and successful?
    - Use examples from the reading in your one page response to the question.
- Develop a comic strip with a minimum of 10 frames that incorporates the topics discussed in the reading into the storyline.

When you have finished your project turn it into the box.

After reading “Creating a Strong and Happy Marriage” complete one of the following:

- Create a one page advertisement (similar to an advertisement you might find in a magazine) that promotes ways to create a strong and happy marriage. You can use ideas presented in the reading. Use the colored paper and markers to make your advertisement creative and eye catching.
- Write a one page(Dear Abby type) response to the following situation:
  - My spouse and I recently were married and I am worried about creating a strong marriage that will last through the test of time. What can we do to ensure that our marriage is happy and successful?
    - Use examples from the reading in your one page response to the question.
- Develop a comic strip with a minimum of 10 frames that incorporates the topics discussed in the reading into the storyline.

When you have finished your project turn it into the box.